VII. REQUIRED LEARNING ACTIVITIES

A. Given a diagnostic instrument, questionnaire, personal inventory or equivalent method, students will participate in a learning activity that requires self-assessment to determine their own level of cultural sensitivity and experience in interrelating with cultural groups.

- The learning activity should provide the student with an opportunity to determine their current level of experience in dealing with cultural groups
- The learning activity should also serve as a starting point for an instructor-facilitated classroom discussion and/or small group discussions which address perceptions, experiences, fears, and stereotypes concerning contact with cultural groups

Discussion may include, but is not limited to cultural stereotypes, ethnophobia, homophobia, xenophobia, gender bias, and media impact on cultural perceptions

B. Given a minimum of three POST-developed video re-enactments depicting law enforcement contacts with cultural groups, or an equivalent number of simulations, scenarios or video representations provided by the presenter, the student will participate in an instructor-led discussion evaluating the appropriateness and professional quality of the contact.

Among the issues which must be addressed are:

- Any positive or negative behaviors demonstrated by contacting officers

2. The apparent perception of the cultural group regarding the contact
3. Presence or absence of cultural stereotyping
4. The level of cultural understanding demonstrated by the officers
5. The legality of the contact and subsequent actions of the contacting officers
6. The professional, personal, and organizational impact of the contact, either positive or negative
7. Cultural group history, customs, religious conventions, core values, or other perceptions material to the contact

Presentation of the video re-enactments, simulations, or scenarios may be done collectively or may be interspersed throughout the instructional block at the discretion of the instructor.

- C. Given a minimum of four POST-developed video re-enactments depicting possible sexual harassment, or an equivalent number of simulations, scenarios, or video representations provided by the presenter, the student will participate in a facilitated discussion which addresses the following:

1. Any behaviors which are illegal, as defined by federal or state sexual harassment laws
2. Professional, personal, and organizational impacts of the incident
3. Legal and administrative consequences of the behaviors observed
4. Whether or not state sexual harassment reporting guidelines apply to the situation

- D. Given a minimum of two POST-developed video re-enactments or written descriptions of possible hate crimes, or an equivalent material provided by the presenter, the student will participate in a facilitated discussion which addresses the following:

1. Whether or not the incident constituted a hate crime under the law
2. Impact of the incident on victims, victim's families and the community
3. Effectiveness of the law enforcement response
4. Legal rights of, and remedies available to the victim(s)

- E. The student will participate in a series of learning activities from the POST-developed Instructor's Guide to Learning Activities for Leadership, Ethics and Community Policing (December 2005) or other comparable sources. At a minimum, each activity or combination of activities must address the following topics:
